West Highland Way

Kit Johnstone, Ph.D.
Milngavie to Drymen

2 No city though our this Mil'ga'ie,
Yet needed food here could you buy.
And spent some time at fish ladder,
Drying out your feet now in tatter.

Kit Johnstone, Ph.D.
Wilderness, 2011

† 'Aet thaem neowan gate' (at the new gate) in Anglo-Saxon came to be called Newingate (St George's Gate), it exists since at least 923 at Canterbury.

AB © 2011, Kit Johnstone Tyabandha, Ph.D. 